Last chance to nominate for PS Awards!

Do you know someone – a colleague, friend or family member – who is making a difference in the public sector in Queensland?

You have only three weeks left to nominate them for one of seven Public Sector Excellence Awards, proudly run by the Institute of Public Administration Australia (IPAA) Queensland, the sector's peak professional body.

Offering seven categories across local, state and federal government, the awards were created by the Institute to recognise best practice and excellence in the public sector for the benefit of Queensland.

The 2010 award categories include:

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

- Young Leader of the Year (under 35yo)
- Public Sector Professional of the Year (over 35yo)
- Regional Queensland Leader of the Year
- Patron's Award for Excellence in the Public Sector

TEAM AWARDS

- Best Practice in Local Government
- Best Practice in State Government
- Best Practice in Federal Government

The awards are open to everyone working across local, state and federal government, including Government Owned Corporations and Statutory Authorities. Nominations are now open and close at 5pm on Thursday 24 June 2010.

Nominating is quick and easy and can all be done online.
