

Institute of Public
Administration Australia
Queensland

Fact Sheet

IPAA QUEENSLAND'S VISION

To champion excellence in public administration through supporting a highly motivated and competent public sector to deliver best practice public policy to Queensland.

IPAA QUEENSLAND'S ROLE IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR:

- Known as the peak professional body for the public sector in Queensland.
- Represents the interests of more than 270,000 public professionals across all tiers of government in Queensland.
- Is the not-for-profit professional association offering those with an interest in public management and public sector reform the opportunity to network and exchange ideas on the latest trends, practices and innovations, through events, training courses and networking opportunities.
- As an apolitical organisation, promotes healthy governance and excellence in public administration across Queensland.

IPAA QUEENSLAND'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE PUBLIC SECTOR:

- Provides training to more than 7,000 public sector professionals each year with programs tailored to the skillsets and capabilities needed to equip them for a career in the public sector.
- Champions excellence through research initiatives such as the Principles of Good Practice series on Codes of Values and Ethics, Whistleblowing and Community Engagement.
- Offers a range of high quality, topical events from influential international speakers to intimate executive lunches, bringing the latest thinking and innovation in public management to Queensland.
- Offers regular networking opportunities to connect like-minded people across all levels of government.
- Provides regular e-newsletters and publications designed to keep its members and corporate partners up to date with the latest news and issues affecting the public sector.

IPAA QUEENSLAND'S HISTORY AND LEADERSHIP:

- Established in 1928, IPAA has a divisional office in each state and territory of Australia.
- The Queensland divisional office has been operating for more than 50 years.
- IPAA Queensland President is Margaret Allison, Commission Chief Executive, Queensland Public Service Commission (biography available on request).
- IPAA Queensland CEO is Mr Peter Rumph (biography available on request).
- IPAA Queensland Patron is Governor of Queensland, Ms Penelope Wensley AO.

IPAA QUEENSLAND'S SERVICES

IPAA Queensland offers four core services to its members and the broader public sector community:

OUR DETAILS

Level 9
ING Building
100 Edward Street
Brisbane 4000

PO Box 15624
City East Qld 4002

t 07 3228 2800

f 07 3228 2888

www.qld.ipaa.org.au